SUBJECT: Interview with Complainant Sheena Hancock

On 17 November 2011 at 1030 hours, Reporting Detective Shawn KENNEDY #21270 conducted a telephonic interview with complainant [REDACTED] who provided the following identifiers:

The following is a summary, not verbatim, of the incident that [REDACTED] described to Reporting Detective. [REDACTED] stated she was involved in a no-fault traffic accident with an Asian woman on 06 October 2011 around 31st and Canal Street. When the two officers arrived, an ambulance was called and [REDACTED] was treated at the scene. After her finger was pricked by paramedics, the officers handcuffed her behind her back and placed her in their blue and white police SUV. She was informed she had a suspended driver's license. [REDACTED] was agitated over her arrest so the partner of Officer "Miles" threw her purse, containing approximately $10 USC and credit cards, inside of her unlocked vehicle that was going to be impounded. Her vehicle is a black 2003 Chevy Impala with license plate number N697752.

[REDACTED] stated during her ride to the police station on 31st and Halsted, she calmed down. Officer "Miles" started to flirt with her from the front passenger seat. His name tag on his uniform said "Miles", which [REDACTED] remembers because that is the same name of the college she attended in Alabama. During the ride to the police station, "Miles" told [REDACTED] that she was pretty; asked her why she was out alone; and where was her boyfriend?

[REDACTED] stated while she was in the processing area of the police station, "Miles" continued flirting heavily with her. The partner of "Miles" was in and out of the processing area. "Miles" asked if he could take [REDACTED] out; what type of things she liked to do; and how sexy she was. "Miles" talked openly as if they were alone in the processing area. He also asked for [REDACTED] telephone number. When she refused, "Miles" said he would get it off of the report. "Miles" blew her kisses with his mouth and licked his tongue outside of his mouth in a sexual and provocative manner. His partner knew what was happening but he did not take any part in it. "Miles" issued [REDACTED] a citation for driving on a suspended driver's license. [REDACTED] said she attended court at the Daley Center this Monday, 14 November 2011 but "Miles" was not in court. The case was continued to 08 February 2012.

[REDACTED] stated while she was still in the police station, the officers wanted her to post $200 for bond but they knew her purse, money and credit cards was thrown into her impounded vehicle. [REDACTED] was allowed to sign an I-Bond and she left the police station.

[REDACTED] stated she walked out of the police station with a man, who asked if he could use her cell phone. They both had bonded out together. While he used [REDACTED] cell phone, the same two officers pulled along side of her as she walked S/B on Halsted. "Miles", who was still the front seat passenger, asked if she needed a ride home. [REDACTED] said since she had no money with her, she accepted their offer for a ride home. After she retrieved her cell phone from the male who bonded out with her, she sat in the rear seat without handcuffs on.

According to [REDACTED], the officers drove S/B on Halsted, crossed 35th Street, turned right and parked under a dark viaduct. There were no people around on the streets. [REDACTED] said "Miles" opened his passenger door, left it open, and exited the vehicle. He then opened the rear passenger door, where [REDACTED] was still sitting, and stood in her doorway. According to [REDACTED], "Miles" unbuckled his belt, pulled his pants and boxer shorts down together to his thighs and exposed his genitals (penis), which was not erect. When [REDACTED] asked what was going on and that she don't get down like that, "Miles" stated, "Aren't you about to suck this dick?" [REDACTED] looked to see if "Miles's" partner was going to intervene or say something. She never saw the partner turn around but felt he had to know what was happening, since "Miles" spoke very openly and the partner parked under the viaduct for a specific reason. After "Miles" tried to convince [REDACTED] to comply but she continued to refuse, "Miles" pulled his pants back up and sat back in the front passenger seat. The officers drove [REDACTED] further south and dropped her off by another police station around 51st and the expressway. [REDACTED] asked why they were no longer taking her home. One of the officers informed her that this was as far as they could go because it is the end of their jurisdiction. [REDACTED] called a friend to pick her up. "Miles" never called [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] described Officer "Miles" as: M/1/30s-40s; light brown complexion; six feet; 180 lbs; very fit; mustache; wavy/curly hair with an even cut; nice smile with even white teeth.

[REDACTED] described the partner as: M/1/30s-40s'; light brown complexion; five feet-10 inches; 170 lbs; more fit the "Miles"; clean face; wavy/curly hair with an even cut. [REDACTED] could not describe the partner's teeth because he did not do much of the talking. "Miles" smiled so much, she had a chance to see his teeth often. Both officers could pass for brothers.

[REDACTED] said she is sure she could identify both officers if she were shown pictures. [REDACTED] stated she is currently out of town but wanted to sign a sworn affidavit and pursue this case.
